

Pickens County Building Codes Administration

JUNK OR ABANDONED VEHICLES ORDINANCE SUMMARY

Pickens County Ordinance # 297, SECTION # 6, makes it illegal to have a “JUNKED or ABANDONED VEHICLE” in a RESIDENTIAL area. The Pickens County Code Enforcement Officer enforces all ordinances, and if found in violation of Ordinance #297, homeowners could be fined up to $500.00. To avoid prosecution for this violation, the following remedies are provided for in the Ordinance:

1. Each vehicle is to be covered with a factory car cover (Tarps are not allowed).
2. Store vehicles in a totally enclosed building.
3. Remove vehicle from premises.
4. All junk is to be out of view of all public roads and adjacent properties.

If Pickens County Code Enforcement Office can be of assistance, please do not hesitate to contact the Pickens County Building Codes Department at: 864.898.5950